An invitation for you ...

Dear Friends and Members of PCDS

I am very much looking forward to welcoming you to another excellent day full of dermatology educational lectures at the Cavendish Conference Centre in London. We have invited locally based Consultants and Consultants from the North of the country speaking on psychodermatology, chemotherapy related rashes, the different peri-orbital rashes, cosmetic dermatology, lipoedema and psoriasis.

It is an equal pleasure to have the Chief Executive of the National Eczema Society talking to us about the work the Society is doing in order to improve life for people suffering from this chronic skin condition.

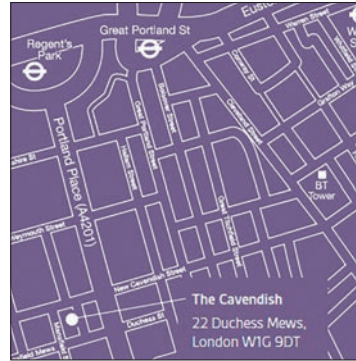

It promises to be another fantastic event in the 25th year of the PCDS since its inception which is not just educational but also a great opportunity for networking. I hope you will join us in London and look forward seeing you.

With best wishes,

Dr Angelika Razzaque
PCDS Executive Chair
